

The trial operation of the 300 MW Stanari thermal power plant, equipment testing and obtaining the relevant permits, is expected to be completed in autumn 2016, the investor in the plant, EFT, told Energetika.NET.

According to EFT, all the processes are taking place in accordance with the previously defined deadlines and within the framework of the applicable regulatory provisions.