

The Coal mine and thermal power plant Stanari, owned by the EFT Group, was awarded a provisional utilisation permit and granted permission to proceed with a trial run. During this period, the thermal power plant will operate at full capacity whilst finalising the performance and plant optimisation tests. The EPC contractor, Dongfang Electric Corporation completed the construction of the thermal power plant to the highest standards ahead of the contractual schedule.