

Macedonian Minister of Economy Bekim Neziri will hold a briefing Friday over the memorandum of understanding on joint approach in the issue of diversification of natural gas and supply security challenges.

The memorandum is part of the Central East South Europe Gas Connectivity (CESEC) initiative, where the Republic of Macedonia has drafted projects over gas-energy networking with countries in the area.