

Beneficiaries (state or private investors) of the mining exploration projects are invited to submit their ESIA studies for public presentation and consultations.