

Serbia to invest 10-15 bln euro for environmental protection

Serbia will invest 10 to 15 billion Euro in environmental protection in the next 20 years, Environmental Protection Ministry said at a Belgrade meeting on Serbia's negotiation position for chapter 27 of the pre-accession negotiations with the European Union. Part of the money will be invested by the state and part by the international community and foreign investors.